HALLOWEEN ON THE HEIGHTS – Sat., Oct. 19, 1-5PM
Don't miss this year's annual Halloween on the Heights co-sponsored by the City of Broadview Heights and the Broadview Heights Community Foundation. It will be held within and around the Community Building (Rec Center) at Broadview Center, 9543 Broadview Road.

It is FREE and open to everyone. There will be inflatables, costume contests (2-4PM), coloring contests, kids' carnival games and prizes, trick-or-treating sponsored by businesses and organizations, face-painting, pumpkin launcher, hay maze, Kalahari & basket raffles, professional photographs, and food vendors. In addition, there will be an Open House at the Broadview Road fire station during the event.

Visitors can also take a hay-ride shuttle to The Spotlights Theater's Enchanted Hollow-een for a nominal fee (rain or shine). It consists of 9 fairy tale skits and takes place in and around the theater building next to the police station. You can also drive there are park behind the Police Station. Admission is $3.

Individuals, businesses, groups, and families can still decorate a scarecrow. The theme is "Zombies", but all scarecrows are welcome. There are several prizes for the best scarecrow and your chances of winning a prize are really good! Drop off scarecrows at the rec center before noon on event-day.

Call 440/838-4522 for additional information about the event.
