BROADVIEW HEIGHTS ’ SPLASH PARK IS NOW OPEN!

The Broadview Heights Splash Park is now open to the public and will remain open through Labor Day. Hours are 10AM-8PM daily and admission is free.

Please note that the park may close at the discretion of the Parks & Recreation Department due to special events (i.e., closed at 5PM for tonight ’s concert), maintenance or weather-related issues.

The Splash Park is approximately 3,000 square feet and includes many play features. It is located at 9543 Broadview Road on the Broadview Center campus, next to the playground.

The Splash Park was funded in part through a NatureWorks Grant awarded to the City of Broadview Heights by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. The area also includes a concession stand, restrooms, pavilion, skate park, and playground. The nearby concession stand will also be open daily. Food items such as hot dogs, pizza, nachos, beverages, candy and snacks will be available for purchase.

A grand opening ceremony for the new Broadview Heights Splash Park will be Monday, August 4th, 2014 at 4:30PM. Romeo’s Pizza will be offering free pizza and the Parks & Recreation Department will offer free Coke products (while supplies last). DJ services are being donated by Gary Perl’s Rock-On DJ Service from 4:30-5:30pm. For more information contact: 440-838-4522.
