RECREATION NEWS

- SOCCER SKILLS INDOOR WINTER CLINIC – ADMINISTERED BY PENNINE UNITED SOCCER CLUB: The clinic will consist of six intense one-hour sessions that will be held in the newly renovated Broadview Heights Recreation Center gymnasium. The clinic will run on select Fridays from January 23 through March 13. This program is geared for participants aged 6-12 looking to sharpen their skills for the spring outdoor season and/or those who want to get an edge for upcoming travel team try outs. All skill levels are welcome! The clinic will be operated by Wayne

Jentas. Wayne has played professional soccer for the Vancouver Whitecaps (NASL), Columbus Magic (ASL), Cleveland Force (MISL) and the Canton Invaders (NPSL). He has also coached at the professional level for the Canton Invaders, Cleveland Crunch and Denver Thunder. Clinic fees range from $60-$70 per participant. To register online, visit www.bhrec.org or come to the recreation center front desk at 9543 Broadview Road. Information on additional program offerings will be available soon. You can also contact Parks & Athletic Manager Gary Diehl for additional information at (440-717-4063) Space is limited. Registration will be on a first come, first served basis. Additional information on Pennine United Soccer Club can be found at www.penninesoccerclub.com.
